

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN WILLIMANTIC OFFICE

Telephone 539-5 23 Church St.

What Is Going On Tonight

Willimantic Rotary club weekly meeting at 8 p.m.
Company G, 189th Infantry, drills at State Armory, Pleasant street.
Knights of Columbus, Dan Jones council, No. 14, meets at 751 Main street.
Royal Arcanum, Willimantic council, No. 73, meets at 702 Main street.
Olive Branch council, No. 10, R. & S. St., stated assembly, at Masonic hall.
Whitman Independent, No. 10, I. O. O. F., meets at 807 Main street.

The December meeting of the board of aldermen was held Monday night in the council chambers in the town building. Mayor Charles A. Gates presiding. Present were Aldermen Jackson, Carlson, Jacobs and Flynn and Aldermen-at-Large Roy and Sullivan.

City Clerk A. C. Scripture read the report on standing rules for the board of aldermen for the ensuing year, which was adopted. The report of the November special meeting was accepted. The report of Chief of Police Daniel Killourey showing 20 arrests for November was accepted, as was also the report of Supt. of Streets Irvin M. Ford showing expenditures of $1,717.

City Treasurer Scripture read the accounts for city expenditures for November, the totals of which follow: City revenue, $11,315.18; expenditures, $14,214.79; balance on hand, $2,898.42; water department—receipts, $3,634.79; expenses, $4,160.27; balance on hand, $4,534.62. The report was accepted.

The claim of Mrs. Louis Duprey for damages resulting from injury due to a fall on the footbridge Oct. 30th was referred to the committee on claims and the corporation counsel.

Mayor Charles A. Gates was empowered to borrow $2,000, or such parts thereof needed for current city expenses. The annual budget as adopted by the board of aldermen and amended and adopted at the annual city meeting, totaling $148,000, was adopted.

The following committee appointments were made by Mayor Gates: Committee on finance, Aldermen Roy, Sullivan and Carlson; on claims, Aldermen Flynn, Jackson and Jacobs; on water, Aldermen Jacobs, Flynn and Jackson.

Resolutions were adopted relative to the installing of water 200 feet from the end of the present system on Brown avenue, subject to the approval of the water committee and empowering Mayor Gates to purchase a new and any other small tools needed for the annual harvesting of ice at the city houses.

The election of a president of the board of aldermen resulted in the unanimous choice of Alderman Edgar W. Jacobs of the Fourth ward. The nomination was made by Alderman William E. Jackson. Mayor Gates appointed Aldermen Roy and Sullivan tellers, but on motion of Alderman Jackson it was voted that Alderman Sullivan cast one affirmative ballot for Alderman Jacobs as president of the board.

The usual bills were read and voted upon. Alderman Flynn called the attention of the board to a claim against the city by Mrs. Thompson of Mansfield, who was injured last fall on Pleasant street. The matter was referred to the committee on claims for investigation and report.

Adjournment was taken at 8:45 o'clock.

The report of Chief of Police Daniel J. Killourey for November shows 20 arrests as follows: Drunkenness, 1; breach of the peace, 3; cruelty to parents, 2; violation of auto laws, 3; breach of the peace and resisting officer, 1; non-support, 1; violation of laws of town, 1; violation Mayor law, 2; reckless driving, 1.

These cases were disposed of as follows: Committed to jail, 4; released by chief, 2; nolle prosequi, 1; paid fines and costs, 10; continued, 2.

During the month 25 tramps were lodged at the station, stolen property to the value of $189 was recovered, one bicycle was returned, one stray horse found, and 130 complaints received. Electric lights were out 738 hours.

The December supper of the Congregational Church Brotherhood is to be held Thursday evening at the church house. The supper is to be served by the Ladies' society of the church. Following the supper the men will be addressed by Rev. William H. Day, pastor of the United Church, Bridgeport, his subject to be "Organization of Churches for Community Service." Rev. Mr. Day is a well known speaker who has been moderator of the national council and pastor of one of the largest churches on the Pacific coast. Friday evening at the church the Church School Workers are to hold their meeting and will be addressed by Dr. Frank M. Sheldon, secretary of the Congregational society.

David Lorce and George Vanderman had good luck on their hunting trip Saturday, bagging a black duck and a wild goose that weighed 12 pounds and a ounce. Later in the week a game supper is to be arranged at which twenty-eight covers will be laid.

Three cases before Judge Foss in the police court Monday morning were quickly disposed of as follows: Dominick Menditto charged with breach of the peace had his case continued until Saturday, January 1, 1922. Bonds were fixed.

Stop Itching Scalp

Itch Parian Sage on your head and you won't have to scratch the dandruff off; stops itching scalp, gives a luxuriant head of beautiful hair or money refunded says Lee & Osgood Co.

Buy Your PLAYER PIANO
of us and see why
SO MUCH SATISFACTION
is Realized
By our many customers.
PLAUT-CADDEN CO.
NORWICH
CONN.

Relieve Piles With Pyramid

You Are Overjoyed to Find Such Relief from Pain and Distress
When You Use Pyramid Pile Supportories. Send for a Free Trial

Yes, "Pyramid Pile Supportories" are simply wonderful in case pain, relieve itching, aching that aggrrating sense of pressure and enable you to rest and sleep with comfort.

The fact that almost every drug-gist in the U.S. and Canada carries Pyramid in stock at 50 cents a box shows how highly these Supportories are regarded. Take no substitutes. You can try them free by sending your name and address to Pyramid Drug Co., 611 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ed at $100. Ralph Very charged with reckless driving, had his case nolle prosequi on payment of costs of $5.15 as there were circumstances about the case that won leniency from the court. The case of cruelty to animals brought against a 14-year old boy was nolle prosequi on suggestion of the prosecuting attorney, Samuel B. Harvey, that the boy had been wrongfully accused.

At the meeting of Local 462, American Federation of Mudclans, held Sunday, the following officers for 1922 were elected: President, George E. Young; vice president, William Smith; secretary, Harry Lester; treasurer, Wilbur Stevens. The board of trustees includes the four officers. The executive committee comprises John Meenan, Frank P. Brooks, and J. Deloraine Conant. Harry Rosen was elected sergeant-at-arms.

Engine Company, Second Platoon, was called out Sunday night shortly before 10 o'clock for a fire in the cellar of Glenn Richards' store, No. 144 Valley street. Sixty gallons of chemical were used to extinguish the blaze that had rained heady among loose papers in the cellar.

The Central Vermont Railroad has sent a bill of $185 to the Connecticut Agricultural college students' body for damages to the several coaches used to convey the students to Kingston, R. I., for the Rhode Island State-Connecticut Aggies' football game November 19th. An agent of the railroad told President C. L. Beach of the college that the paint was removed by workmen in order to remove lettering from the sides of the cars. The student body will make no decision until the bill is received and then the matter will be taken up with the railroad.

William C. Blanchard, 78, died Sunday at his home, No. 58 Spring street. He was born in Lebanon, September 4, 1843, the son of Daniel and Mary Ann Hoxie Blanchard. He was a farmer but had retired from active work about two years ago. He had represented the town of Lebanon in the state legislature, was a veteran of the Civil war, having served with Company D, 8th Connecticut Infantry. Besides his widow he leaves a daughter, Edna, a sister, Miss Harriet M. Blanchard, and a nephew, George Hoxie, also of Lebanon.

Brief Notes.

John Shea has returned to this city after spending six months in Rochester, Minn., Chicago, Ill., and Davenport, Ia.

Some fifteen friends of William Hartford, of North street, who is recovering from measles, visited at his home Sunday night and presented him a mahogany smoking set and a box of cigars.

Colonel William McIntyre, of Boston, Major DeMunn of Hartford, and Eugene H. Amer of Boston, all of the Salvation Army, visited the headquarters in this city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grattidge of Norwich, were week end guests of Mrs. Grattidge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Crane, of Bellevue street.

Mrs. Maude Olin of Los Angeles, Cal., returned recently from a trip to Plymouth, England, is visiting Mrs. Annie Olin of Windham road.

Rev. Arthur L. Carpenter, pastor of the Baptist church was in New Haven Monday attending the meeting of the State Board of Promotion.

Miss Laura Young has returned home to Springfield, Vt., bringing the week end with her mother, Mrs. Estella H. Young, of Windham road.

Sister Loyola, of St. Mary's convent, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is reported as more comfortable.

Word has been received by Mrs. Joseph Gaudreau that the body of her brother, Alvan M. Potvin, arrived in Hoboken Saturday, and that a military service was held there Sunday. The body will arrive in this city either today (Tuesday) or Wednesday.

Work of refitting the interior of the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. has been nearly completed by James H. Bell.

The children of the beginners' department of the Congregational Sunday school are making trimmings which they will put on two Christmas trees which will be given to poor families. The children are to meet Saturday afternoon, Dec. 17, at the church house.

The local Kacays with a make-up team lost to the Middletown Kacays at Middletown Saturday night, 15 to 13.

Colder weather which set in toward nightfall turned the rain into snow and travel soon became dangerous. The snow was very deep and slippery.

Do you know why trimmings do not give you quick and lasting relief? Why cutting and operations fail? And danger of after operation operation?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal? That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal tablet remedy discovered by Dr. Leonard and known as HEM-ROID, now sold at Lee & Osgood and drug stores generally. It is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the internal cause, by helping blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for cure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not do the same for you.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why trimmings do not give you quick and lasting relief?

Why cutting and operations fail?

And danger of after operation operation?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal?

That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal tablet remedy discovered by Dr. Leonard and known as HEM-ROID, now sold at Lee & Osgood and drug stores generally. It is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the internal cause, by helping blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for cure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not do the same for you.

Local physicians report few new cases

Clip the Coupon Thursday and take advantage of the Special Offer on — Hand Size IVORY SOAP

FREE HAND SIZE IVORY SOAP

TWO LATITUDES—AND A LUXURY

66° N. Latitude. Two men and a dog team. Midnight sun. Frozen waters. Hats for the night. A few handfuls of snow are thrown in the tea kettle. Spirit lamp is lighted, kettle boils and tea is made.

"Great stuff, Fred," says one. "Tasterlike more." "Yes," the other replies. "It's LIPTON'S—the kind we always use down home."

40° N. Latitude. A cheerful drawing room. Bright lights and smiling faces. Butler trundles in the tea-wagon. Tea is poured. Pretty girl whispers "Heard from your son in Alaska?"

Another says, "The tea is delicious. May I have another cup?"

It's LIPTON'S—the kind she always serves. Throughout the civilized world, LIPTON'S is the favorite.

Ask your grocer for Lipton's Yellow Label Tea. If he does not sell it, send us his name and address and we will mail you a FREE sample and give you the name of a grocer who can supply you. Thomas J. Lipton Inc., Hoboken, N. J.

R. G. REMINGTON REO

DISTRIBUTOR FOR ALL OF WINDHAM COUNTY

Large supply of parts carried in stock.

Satisfactory work on all makes of cars.
EXPERT MECHANICS
RADIATOR REPAIRING
A SPECIALTY

In Rear 935 Main Street
Willimantic, Conn.

JAY M. SHEPARD

Successor Filtmore & Shepard
Funeral Director & Embalmer
20-42 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC
Lady Assistant. Tel. Connection

Killourey Bros.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
25 Union St. Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 295. (Lady Assistant)

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE Willimantic, Conn.

HUNDREDS OF GIVEABLE GIFTS
All Marked at Prices That Make Xmas
Giving the Old-Fashioned Joy
It Once Was.

The "will that makes the way" has long persisted here, and the results accomplished for this Christmas stand out most pleasantly. Not content simply to bring before you hosts of giveable gifts, but we have utilized our resources to bring them before you at surprisingly low prices.

Shop Now and Take Ample Time In Wandering About Jotting Down Notes of Things You See and Want, But Come Early!

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

froze as it struck the ground and covered the sidewalks and streets with a coating of ice. No accidents were reported up to a late hour Monday night, however.

Mrs. Anna Valise of Chestnut street Ed. Miska, Board of Main street spent Sunday with friends in Putnam.

COLCHESTER

Harold J. Kerr left Friday night for his home in Valatie, N. Y., where he will spend the winter. Mr. Kerr is fireman on one of the steam shovels on the state road job.

Resident Engineer John Smith was at his home in Putnam over Sunday.

S. B. Butler of Norwich was in town Saturday.

Jesse Bailey of Hartford and Harold Bailey of Packwoodville were at their home on South Main street over Sunday.

Dominic Tiano, engineer on the large hotel at the station, left Saturday for his home in New Haven for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Peck and son of Norwich Town and Mrs. Belle Worthington of Norwich were visiting relatives in town Sunday.

Several large auto trucks passed through the village Sunday bound for Hartford. They were filled with marines and sailors from the submarine base who attended the football game between the submarine base team and the All-Hartford team.

Michael Sullivan was at his home in New Haven over Sunday.

At the intruding service in the Congregational church Sunday the pastor, Rev. W. O. Beckman, took as the subject of his sermon in the S. O. S. The Christian Endeavor society met in the chapel at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday evening in the chapel Mrs. Charles Daniels is to give her seventh talk on The Bible's Appeal for Personal Evangelism.

Postoffice Inspector George Smith was with his family on Windham avenue over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beebe, Eugene Beebe, Miss Wilma Marshall and Mr. Newton were week end visitors in Norwich.

Mrs. L. C. Brown and Mrs. E. A. Carrier were in Middletown Sunday.

Roland Brown was a visitor in Hartford Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Elizabeth and Susan Day and Miss Alice Kemp were in Hartford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baker and Henry J. Bailey and daughter, Miss Allison Bailey, motored to New London Sunday.

Mrs. Cotter and family of Willimantic were callers at Mrs. W. E. Strong's Sunday.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Only 23 votes were cast at the annual borough election Monday. Three blank ballots were found in the box and two were nullified, leaving 23 straight votes for each of the candidates. James Sheppard, Jr., will be warden for another year, and the burgesses will be John Quinn, A. D. Bernanda, A. W. Kingsbury, Dr. C. B. Lechmann, W. K. Eldredge and T. P. Mullen.

After the polls closed the business meeting was held and it was voted to lay a tax of six mills, the same as last year. One mill to be devoted to the payment of the new fire engine and two mills to be used for the purpose of paying the current expenses and reducing the indebtedness of the borough. There were no women voted, although there are 408 names on the list.

The public schools will close Friday for the holiday vacation of two weeks. It is expected that when sessions are resumed Jan. 30 the elementary schools in the borough will be transferred to the new building which has just been completed.

Arthur J. Melbourne was a Hartford visitor Saturday.

of measles. The disease has been in a very mild form.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Mrs. Ellen Torrey has returned from Woodstock, where she has been visiting her brother. Much damage was done to the fruit trees at her brother's home during the recent ice storm.

Mrs. Emma Mitchell has gone to Philadelphia for an indefinite stay with her daughters.

Thomas Moore has returned from a business trip to Long Island.

John Francis is again on duty, having been ill at his home.

Miss Marjorie Tillinghast was a visitor with relatives in Norwich Saturday. Doris Martin has been ill with throat trouble.

Mrs. George W. Loring will be the clader of the Christian Endeavor service Wednesday evening instead of Friday evening.

The W. C. T. U. is to meet this (Tuesday) afternoon at Mrs. Samuel Collins'. George D. Seguin of Providence spent Sunday at his home.

The teachers' training class will meet Thursday evening with Mrs. Raymond Rider.

Rev. Mary Macomber is the chairman of the present committee for the Sunday school tree. Members of Miss Ruth Mathewson's class will be the solicitors.

Mrs. Charles Barber has gone to Norwich to spend the winter at the Wauregan house.

The body of Samuel Knox was brought from Danabon Friday afternoon for burial in the family lot at Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dean spent

Thursday and Friday with relatives in Washington, D. C.

John Kendall of Brooklyn spent Sunday with local relatives.

Miss Helen Gilbert of Boston is visiting at her home.

Miss Rose Darty, who has been ill with a severe throat trouble, is better. Sunday Frank Barber of Woody Hill, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kenyon and Leale Kanyon of Rockville, R. I., visited local relatives.

Portland.—George William Kitchen, who conducts a farm on Penfield Hill, is endeavoring to secure trace of his brother, Charles Kitchen, from whom he has received no direct word for 12 years. Mr. Kitchen will write to Calgary, province of Alberta, Canada, asking that search be instituted for the missing man.

Thursday and Friday with relatives in Washington, D. C.

John Kendall of Brooklyn spent Sunday with local relatives.

Miss Helen Gilbert of Boston is visiting at her home.

Miss Rose Darty, who has been ill with a severe throat trouble, is better. Sunday Frank Barber of Woody Hill, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kenyon and Leale Kanyon of Rockville, R. I., visited local relatives.

Portland.—George William Kitchen, who conducts a farm on Penfield Hill, is endeavoring to secure trace of his brother, Charles Kitchen, from whom he has received no direct word for 12 years. Mr. Kitchen will write to Calgary, province of Alberta, Canada, asking that search be instituted for the missing man.

Thursday and Friday with relatives in Washington, D. C.

John Kendall of Brooklyn spent Sunday with local relatives.

Miss Helen Gilbert of Boston is visiting at her home.

Miss Rose Darty, who has been ill with a severe throat trouble, is better. Sunday Frank Barber of Woody Hill, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kenyon and Leale Kanyon of Rockville, R. I., visited local relatives.

Portland.—George William Kitchen, who conducts a farm on Penfield Hill, is endeavoring to secure trace of his brother, Charles Kitchen, from whom he has received no direct word for 12 years. Mr. Kitchen will write to Calgary, province of Alberta, Canada, asking that search be instituted for the missing man.

Thursday and Friday with relatives in Washington, D. C.

John Kendall of Brooklyn spent Sunday with local relatives.

Miss Helen Gilbert of Boston is visiting at her home.

Miss Rose Darty, who has been ill with a severe throat trouble, is better. Sunday Frank Barber of Woody Hill, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kenyon and Leale Kanyon of Rockville, R. I., visited local relatives.

Portland.—George William Kitchen, who conducts a farm on Penfield Hill, is endeavoring to secure trace of his brother, Charles Kitchen, from whom he has received no direct word for 12 years. Mr. Kitchen will write to Calgary, province of Alberta, Canada, asking that search be instituted for the missing man.

Thursday and Friday with relatives in Washington, D. C.

John Kendall of Brooklyn spent Sunday with local relatives.

Miss Helen Gilbert of Boston is visiting at her home.